Letter from V.R.Ry. K.N. Krishnaswami Ayyar Avl., B.A., Personal Assistant to the Editor of Gazetteers, Egmore, Madras No. G.27/34 dated 16th July 1935.-

I have had to get translated into English portions of a book dealing with the history of South Kanara in the Kanarese language of which no copy in English is available. I sought the help of one Mr. S. Krishna Rao, a retired official of the Kanarese Translator's office who agreed to help me. I have been paying him conveyance charges to the Madras Record Office and back from his house in Purasawalkam at a rate not exceeding one rupee per day of attendance. The work is now almost over and he will have to attend for not more than a week more.

2. The charge being a special one, the Accountant-General wants the sanction of the competent authority for the incurring of this expenditure. Mr. Krishna Rao has attended office on the whole on 40 days during the last three months and has been paid so far Rs.40. Another payment of Rs.10 may have to be made to him before the work is finished.

3. I am to request that the Board, as head of the Department, be pleased to sanction the expenditure, at not more than Re.1/- per day, of a conveyance charge to Mr. S. Krishna Rao to enable him to help this office in getting important sections of a history of South Kanara in the Kanarese language translated for use in the revision of the Gazetteer of that district. There is a sum of Rs.1,330 under contingencies from which this expenditure can be met.

Submitted to Government.

2. In the circumstances reported by the Personal Assistant to the Editor of Gazetteers, the Board requests that sanction may be accorded for the payment of conveyance charges to Mr. S. Krishna Rao at not more than Re.1/- for each day of his attendance at the office of the Editor of Gazetteers.
